

Bedroom Picture Directions

Close your eyes and think about what it took to get yourself ready today. Did it include making your bed? How organized are you outside of class? How organized you are in your personal life can help you experience less anxiety in your academic life. Your job is to draw a picture of your bedroom, as you left it this morning. Your picture should take up a full piece of printer paper and be in full color.